3. One, Nadine J. Griffin, the Accused and a Belligerent Claimant, is proceeding on my own behalf and by force of statutory compulsion from select corporate officers, under threat,

1 duress, coercions, intimidation and false imprisonment (not proceeding pro se, pro per or in
2 propria persona, not re-presented by a corporate officer or affiliate of any corporate
3 chartered Bar Association) regarding your United States Plaintiff and Federal employer
4 Contract offer of compelled performance 05-CR-10175-WGY.

5 4. That the United States of America, aka the United States, the Plaintiff and your Federal 6 employer, a corporate agitator and pulsator, a dead entity void of conscience, is represented
7 by corporate officers, agents and employees — including statutory Judge and CEO William
8 G. Young – an employee of the entity, giving it life to take the Freedom, Liberty, and 9 Property of Nadine J. Griffin, a Sentient Being.

10 5. That Nadine J. Griffin is unschooled in law, not an attorney or bar association member, nor 11 an employee or officer of your United States Federal corporation or its political 12 subdivision; and is attempting to defend and dispose of this statutory, victimless, 13 commercial crime of belief – “thought crime” – a qui tam action with reliance upon your 14 secular statutes, codes, rules and regulations including those relied upon by your United 15 States Plaintiff, Agitator and Federal employer under the protection of the Constitution for 16 the United States of America, Constitutional Acts of the United States Congress, and 17 Constitutional rulings of the United States Supreme Court.

18 6. That Nadine J. Griffin has been [c]harged (theft of energy by deception) with a statutory,
19 victimless, commercial crime of belief – “a thought crime” – by qui tam officers, agents
20 and employees of the United States Federal corporation as defined by corporate statute at 21 28 U.S.C. § 3002(15)(A) and its strategically placed political subdivision, for which 22 statutory Judge and CEO William G. Young is an employee.

"Circuit Court of Appeals," "Senior Circuit Judge," Etc. Defined

Section 32 of Act June 25, 1948, as amended by Act May 24, 1949, c. 139, § 127, 63 Stat. 107, provided that:

"(a) All laws of the United States in force on September 1, 1948, in which reference is made to a 'circuit court of appeals'; 'senior circuit judge'; 'senior district judge'; 'presiding judge'; 'chief justice', except when reference to the Chief Justice of the United States is intended; or 'justice', except when used with respect to a justice of the Supreme Court of the United States in his capacity as such or as a circuit justice, are hereby amended by substituting 'court of appeals' for 'circuit court of appeals'; 'chief judge of the circuit' for 'senior circuit judge'; 'chief judge of the district court' for 'senior district judge'; 'chief judge' for 'presiding judge'; 'chief judge' for 'chief justice', except when reference to the Chief Justice of the United States is intended; and 'judge' for 'justice', except when the latter term is used with respect to a justice of the Supreme Court of the United States in his capacity as such or as a circuit justice.

"(b) All laws of the United States in force on September 1, 1948, in which reference is made to the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia or to the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia are amended by substituting 'United States District Court for the District of Columbia' for such designations.

"(c) All laws of the United States in force on September 1, 1948, in which reference is made to the 'Conference of Senior Circuit Judges', or to the 'Judicial Conference of Senior Circuit Judges' are amended by substituting 'Judicial Conference of the United States' for such designations.

"(d) This section shall not be construed to amend historical references to courts or judicial offices which have no present or future application to such courts or offices."

Judges of the United States

Section 2(a) of Act June 25, 1948, c. 646, 62 Stat. 985, amended Sept. 3, 1964, c. 1263, § 51(a), 68 Stat. 1245, provided that: "(a) The Chief Justices of the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia, the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, and the Court of Claims [now United States Court of Federal Claims], and the presiding judge of the Court of Customs and Patent Appeals [now United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit], in office on the effective date of this Act, shall be the chief justice of the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia, the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, and the Court of Claims [now United States Court of Federal Claims], and the presiding judge of the Court of Customs and Patent Appeals [now United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit], in office on the effective date of this Act, shall be judges of the United States within the meaning of Section 451 of Title 28, Judiciary and Judicial Procedure, of the United States Code, set out in Section 1 of this Act. The Chief Justice of the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia and the Associate Justices thereof, in office on the effective date of this Act, shall be circuit judges of the District of Columbia Circuit and vested with all the rights, powers, and duties thereof, and the said Chief Justice of the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia shall be Chief Judge of said Circuit. The Chief Justice of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia (formerly named the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia) and the Associate Justices thereof, in office on the effective date of this Act, shall be district judges for the District of Columbia and vested with all the rights, powers, and duties thereof."

Section 51(b) of Act Sept. 3, 1964, provided that this amendment should take effect as of Sept. 1, 1948.

§ 452. Courts always open; powers unrestricted by expiration of sessions

All courts of the United States shall be deemed always open for the purpose of filing proper papers, issuing and returning process, and making motions and orders.

The continued existence or expiration of a session of court in no way affects the power of the court to do any act or take any proceeding.

(June 25, 1948, c. 646, 62 Stat. 907; Oct. 16, 1963, Pub.L. 88-139, § 2, 77 Stat. 248.)

§ 453. Oaths of justices and judges

Each justice or judge of the United States shall take the following oath or affirmation before performing the duties of his office: "I, _____, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will administer justice without respect to persons, and do equal right to the poor and to the rich, and that I will faithfully and impartially discharge and perform all the duties incumbent upon me as _____ under the Constitution and laws of the United States. So help me God." (June 25, 1948, c. 646, 62 Stat. 907; Dec. 1, 1990, Pub.L. 101-650, Title IV, § 404, 104 Stat. 5124.)
